

FACT SHEET: CTAA's Capital Solutions for Rural Transit Providers

If you provide rural public transportation and want to improve your service through expanded access to vehicles, training and technical assistance, consulting and communications, we can help. The Community Transportation Association of America (CTAA) is a recognized leader in providing the resources you need to succeed. Whether you have a hundred vehicles or just one, we have a place for you.

CTAA membership benefits:

- Access to the Association's advocacy efforts on behalf of the rural public transportation program (Section 5311).
- Regular industry communications like CTAA's twice-monthly FastMail e-newsletter that will keep you current on industry news and trends. Also, you'll receive CTAA's digital Community Transportation magazine with feature-length articles and ground breaking research on all forms of rural transportation.
- We can help you get the most cost-effective vehicles at the lowest prices with the best vehicle fleet program of its kind linked to high performance Toyota products like the Prius and Sienna as well as access to a family of accessible vehicles for passengers with special needs ranging from wheelchairs to stretcher carrier vehicles. Our fleet program includes Toyota Care to help lower your operating costs for all of our vehicles. With very tight federal assistance we're an important part of helping you meet your needs.
- Access to short- and long-term vehicle financing short that rewards those with good credit history as well as helping those who are just starting out or need access to a full range support services that directly help with vehicles like our national insurance exchange and our fleet fueling programs.
- The ability to obtain a full range of discounted accredited training and educational programs that help you achieve the highest standards of quality services and provide ways to make your service the safest.
- CTAA's partnership with Enterprise Rideshare, the nation's largest vanpool operator, can provide specific and useful benefits to your operation whether you already have a vanpool operation, or would like to launch one.
- Be part of a network of thousands of similar transportation providers who share valuable insights and experiences both at our annual Community Transportation EXPO conference and other networking opportunities.
