

CTAA Welcomes Marc Molinaro as FTA Administrator

August 3, 2025 [Washington DC] – On behalf of its more than 1,200 members and its Board of Directors, the Community Transportation Association of America (CTAA) welcomes and congratulates Marc Molinaro on his confirmation as Administrator of the Federal Transit Administration (FTA). CTAA works with rural, small city, tribal, and specialized transit agencies across the United States.

Every day, millions of Americans rely on the trips CTAA members provide around the country to get to work, education, healthcare appointments, special events, and other essential needs.

“The FTA is a critical partner and resource for both our members and our Association,” shares CTAA Executive Director Scott Bogren. “We look forward to continuing to work with Administrator Molinaro on crucial initiatives across the United States. We greatly appreciate that Mr. Molinaro has extensive experience in public service and is committed to uplifting and upholding access to public transit for all Americans.”
